

Sonoma County Growers Alliance Annual Membership Form

The mission of the Sonoma County Growers Alliance is to collaborate with and educate businesses, individuals, government and regulatory bodies in the cannabis industry. We believe in developing and preserving the highest environmental, social and economic standards to ensure cannabis businesses participate within our community and thrive responsibly.

Being a member of SCGA is more than attending meetings or receiving newsletters. It is something much bigger. You are joining a family, a support system of business professionals, visionaries and leaders whose voices rise above. We are at the table shaping today and your future. Whether new to the industry or part of our legacy, as a consumer or an operator, SCGA welcomes all to join us as we continue to develop a stable and prosperous cannabis business marketplace in Sonoma County.
